

The International Quarterly Multidisciplinary Research Journal adheres to Q1-level academic research standards. Here is a detailed template with suggested word counts for each section.

Title (10-15 words)

- The title should be concise, specific, and informative, reflecting the content and scope of the research.

Author Information

- Full names of all authors
- Affiliations (department, institution, city, country)
- Corresponding author's email address

Abstract (200-250 words)

- Brief background and context
- Objectives of the study
- Methods used
- Key results
- Conclusions and implications

Keywords (5-7 words)

- Relevant terms that reflect the main topics of the paper

1. Introduction (750-1000 words)

- Background and context of the study
- Problem statement
- Research objectives and questions
- Significance of the study
- Brief outline of the paper's structure

2. Literature Review (800-1000 words)

- Overview of existing research on the topic
- Identification of gaps in the literature
- Theoretical framework and key concepts
- Positioning of the current study within the existing literature

3. Methodology (1000-1500 words)

- Research design and approach
 - Data collection methods
 - Sample selection and description
 - Data analysis techniques
 - Ethical considerations
-

4. Results (1000-1500 words)

- Presentation of findings (use tables, figures, and charts as necessary)
- Description of key results
- Statistical analysis and significance

5. Discussion (1000-1500 words)

- Interpretation of the results
- Comparison with previous research
- Implications for theory and practice
- Limitations of the study
- Suggestions for future research

6. Conclusion (250-500 words)

- Summary of key findings
- Overall conclusions
- Practical applications
- Final thoughts

Acknowledgments (50-100 words)

- Recognition of individuals and organizations that supported the research

References (word count: not included)

- List of all cited works, formatted according to the field of study guidelines (e.g., APA, for Humanities and Social Sciences; MLA for Arts and Language)

Appendices (if applicable; word count: not applicable)

- Supplementary material such as raw data, detailed calculations, or additional figures and tables

Formatting Guidelines:

1. Font and Spacing: Use a standard font such as Times New Roman, 12-point size, double-spaced.
2. Margins: 1-inch margins on all sides.
3. Headings: Use clear and consistent headings and subheadings to organize the content.
4. Tables and Figures: Numbered and captioned, placed within the text or at the end, as per journal guidelines.
5. Citation Style: Consistent use of a citation style, such as APA, MLA, or Chicago, as specified by the journal.

Word Limit:

Please include a word count for your paper.

The journal's policy on length of research article: article: min 3000 and max 6000 words

This template ensures that the research article is well-structured and meets the high standards required for publication in a Q1 journal.

